Part B Notice to the client

Take notice that:

2 I no longer act for you in this case. I intend to advise the Court that your last known residential address in Australia is:

	State	Postcode
Phone	Fax
DX	Email

3 I enclose a Notice of Address for Service for you to complete. You must file and serve this as soon as possible.

TAKE NOTE:

You must give notice to the Court of your contact address (address for service) in Australia within seven days after a change. Your contact address can be the address of another lawyer who is acting for you or your own address.

If you do not have an address for service and you do not provide one you may not receive documents about your case.

If you do not provide a new contact address (address for service) in Australia your last known residential address will be taken to be your contact address (address for service) and can be used by the Court or other parties to serve documents on you.
